

'SMITHS' OF SMITHFIELD

THE DINING ROOM - WINE & DRINKS

Here in The Dining Room we pride ourselves on not only our food but also our extensive drinks offering. Our wines have been researched and selected by our food and beverage manager along with 'SMITHS' own sommelier and our wine suppliers, Liberty Wines. The team have extensive knowledge of our wines so do discuss your choices with them.

The food at 'SMITHS' is about taste, quality and provenance, and we've used the same philosophy when compiling the wine list. In most cases, we've gone directly to the source – the grower – to ensure that the wines are sustainably produced, and that they are true to type. By this we mean that they express the character of the grape variety from which they are made and the site on which the grapes are grown. The same principles have been applied to the selection of our steaks and our wines. We have also put a lot of focus on the value offered by the wines on this list. The higher the cost price of the wine to us, the lower the margin we take. So you're getting much more wine for your money at the lower end of the list. We hope you enjoy drinking the wines as much as we enjoyed compiling the list.
